Playing Safe Behind the Wheel

THE hazards of motoring are always more pronounced during winter months. Wet, slippery streets make the control of your car a difficult matter. Serious accidents can happen so easily. Take extra precautions in driving, see that your brakes are in perfect order, and take the trouble to put on chains when the streets are wet from rain or snow. And be sure that you carry public liability and property damage insurance on your car, as protection to yourself as well as to others. Central's Insurance Department will be glad to quote the inexpensive rates for such a policy, will be glad to explain its manifold advantages. Phone us, or come in.
