

September 9th, 1925.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:-

This will serve to recommend to you Thaddens Elazier and his wife, both of whom have been in my employ for the past year.

They are both excellent servants and I feel safe in saying that they will meet the demands for service in any household. Thad is a good cook, serves meals very well indeed and is an all-around house-man, while his wife is equally as good a maid and house-girl.

My only reason for discontinuing the services of Thad and Vashti, is that I am closing my house and building a smaller place, which will not require the attention of servants.

Yours very truly,